WARSHIPS TO CHINA

LONDON HEARS OF ORDERS TO PACIFIC SQUADRON.

IS CAUSING MUCH WORRY

Fear of International Complications Scene of Trouble is Confined to German Sphere in China, and Europe Fears Trouble.

London, June 4.—The Shanghai correspondent of the Daily Mail says that the American Pacific squadron has been ordered to concentrate in view of possible disturbances in the southern provinces of China.

The recent rioting and murder done by the Chinese rebels has caused anxiety at Washington. Although the leaders of the anti-dynastic revolt proclaim their friendliness towards foreigners and assert that there is no disposition to attack missionaries and other residents, Washington, as well as the European governments, take this with a large amount of salt, knowing the trickery of the Chinese nature and his careless handling of the truth.

It is also feared here, as well as at other capitals, that the Chinese rebels might fail to distinguish between their enemies and the unprotected foreigners and that slaughter might claim as victims those at whom it is not intended it should be aimed. The Chinese rebel bands are composed of the worst elements of the empire, commanded by unscrupulous leaders, and there is a well-grounded fear that these bands might break away from the restraining hand of their leaders and slay foreigners, as well as friends of the reigning dynasty.

Within the last week other powers besides America have ordered their Chinese squadrons to be ready to proceed to the infected districts to lend a hand at protecting their interests. Recently, also, it has appeared that the infection is confined to the German sphere of influence to China, and Europe is experiencing the first shadowy outlines of fear that the Kaiser may find it necessary to land marines, demand indemnity for damage to his subject's property and, failing to get a money return, take unto himself more Chinese territory.

To the Voters of Carter County.

I am a candidate for Register of Deeds for Carter County. The reason I ask for your support is I am qualified to fill the office. I have been a bookkeeper for twenty-two years, and I want the office to do the work. If you will give me the office I will fill it, I will not have the office run by some one you did not vote for.

I have worked for and voted the democratic ticket all my life. I have lived in Ardmore for twelve years and was born and raised in Grayson County, Texas. As to my record as a citizen and my qualifications I refer you to any one of the hundreds of citizens of this county who have known me from twelve to forty years and if you will give me your vote I will guarantee you won't regret it, for I will fill the office to the satisfaction of the people of Carter County.

Respectfully Yours, S. S. TOLSON.

IN THE DEATH CHAIR.

How It Feels When the Killing Current Is Turned On.

He waited a second or so. Then suddenly it seemed as if he must leap from the chair, his body was swelling to some monstrous, impossible, inhuman shape; his muscles were stretched, millions of hot and dreadful needles were piercing and pricking him, a stupendous roaring was in his ears, then a million colors—colors he had never seen or imagined before, colors no one had ever seen or imagined, colors beyond the range of the spectrum new, undiscovered, summoned by some mysterious agency from distant corners of the universe—played before his eyes. Suddenly they were shattered by a terrific explosion in his brain—then darkness.

But, no; there was still sensation. A dull purple color slowly spread before him, gradually grew thicker, expanded, and with a mighty pain he struggled, groping his way in torture and torment over fearful obstacles from some far distance remote as black stars in the cold abyss of the universe. He struggled back to life, then an appalling confusion, a grasp of consciousness; he heard the ticking of the two watches. Then through his brain there slowly trickled a thread of thought that quivered and glowed like a white hot wire.
